SUPPLEMENT TO THE

South-Carolina GAZETTE.

[NUMB. 1853.] TUESDAY, APRIL 30, 1771.

LONDON, FEBRUARY 25.

THURSDAY afternoon a meſſenger arrived at the Secretary of State's office, in Cleveland-Row, from Madrid, with a copy of the King of Spain's formal order for reſtoring Port Egmont; and an inſtrument of Approbation, not of Ratification, of Prince Maſerano's late Declaration. But the claim of right, which the King of Spain has ſet up to Falkland's Iſlands, is to be the ſubject of a ſubſequent negotiation. And there is ſaid to be reaſon to apprehend, that, by private agreement, in order to obtain the above-mentioned formal order for reſtitution, our miniſters have ſtipulated, or promiſed, not to ſend any officer, or ſhip, to repoſſeſs Fort and Port Egmont.

Sunday morning the premium of Inſurance on ſhips and merchandize fell upwards of two per cent. at the ſeveral underwriters offices in the city, on account of the arrival of the ratification of the late convention between this court and that of Spain, on Thurſday laſt. The arrival of the above-mentioned news occaſioned alſo the raiſing of the ſtocks in general.

In an article which has appeared in the papers, it is poſitively aſſerted, "That when our miniſtry firſt made remonſtrances to the court of Spain, on account of the inſult at Falkland's Iſlands, they made a pecuniary demand for the immediate payment of 300,000l." Now it clearly appeared, on peruſing the Spaniſh papers, that our miniſters (during the whole negotiation) had never abated, even in the ſmalleſt degree, from their original demand of reparation. The terms they obtained were preciſely the ſame which they aſked at firſt; and as to a pecuniary reparation, no ſuch demand was ever made.

Twelve hundred thouſand pounds is ſaid to be the neat ſum expended upon the late preparations for—Peace.

On Saturday the Earl of Chatham arrived at his houſe in Pall-Mall, from Hayes, and after ſome conferences with ſeveral of the nobility, returned to Hayes.

Private letters from Paris inform, that the court is not without apprehenſions of ſome dangerous enterprizes in favour of the Parliament; in conſequence of which, the body-guards have been doubled, and an univerſal circumſpection enjoined throughout the departments immediately appertaining to royalty.

A correſpondent obſerves, from the converſation of the town that the oppoſition are falling into the fit of folly with regard Sir James L——r, that the miniſtry did with reſpect to Wilkes. Under the hatred of his character they are points to ſuch a degree of unconſtitutional ſeverity, th men muſt ſoon become advocates for his cauſe, can ſay nothing in favour of his conduct.
